CHICAGO MAN RECEIVES 14-YEAR SENTENCE FOR DEALING HEROIN

Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Stanley F. Jackson, aka: "Oohwee," 25, was sentenced yesterday by U.S. District Judge John C. Shabaz to 170 months (14 years, 2 months) in prison, without parole, for possessing heroin with the intent to distribute. Judge Shabaz stated that he was imposing this high sentence because of Jackson's prior felony drug convictions.

United States Attorney Peterson stated that the conviction followed an investigation conducted by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force, together with the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives. Prosecution of this case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.
